

Curriculum Vitae Summary: updated January 2015

Name, Surname & Academic Degrees:

Alberto Puertas M.D.; Ph.D.

Current Positions:

Section Chief of Obstetrics and Gynecology
University Hospital "Virgen de las Nieves" in Granada, Spain

Awards

Eskes Prize Paper Award 2001, for the best paper published in the European Journal of Obstetrics & Gynecology and Reproductive Biology.

Prize of Royal Academy of Medicine of Granada 2005, because of the best research work.

Prize of "Virgen de las Nieves" Foundation for the best experience in "Improving quality" 2005.

Prize for the best Scientific Work in XXII European Congress of Perinatology 2010.

Featured Speaker at over 70 National and International Congresses of Obstetrics

Lines of research and interest:

Antepartum and intrapartum fetal monitoring, Amnioinfusion, Fetal heart rate, Preterm delivery, Perinatal hypoxia, Perinatal infections.

Scientific contributions in national and international journals:

280 oral abstracts or posters in national meetings

78 abstracts presented at international meetings

100 papers published in international peer reviewed journals and national journals

110 book chapters in national and international Obstetrics and Gynecology books

Grants

19 national and international research projects with external funding as a partner or principal investigator.

Two most recent grants:

Comparison between the analysis of fetal electrocardiogram and conventional fetal heart rate in fetal intrapartum control in prolonged gestations. FIS Instituto Carlos III, 2012-2014. PI: 12/02272

NIGO Health (Nutrition Intervention during Gestation and Offspring Health)
A Multicenter Randomized Clinical Trial funded by Abbott Nutrition, Abbott Laboratories
The European Commission, Early Nutrition (FP7-289346-Early Nutrition) 2014-2016

Others:

10 Supervised Doctoral theses

Author and member of the editorial team of Perinatology protocols of the Spanish Society of Obstetrics and Gynecology