

María Amparo Escudero Espinosa de los Monteros.
Born in Madrid, 25-02-1961.

DEGREES

- Bachelor's Degree in Geography and History, Universidad Complutense, Madrid (1985)
- Master Degree of Arts in History, University of California, San Diego, USA (1987)
- Ph.D. in History, University of California, San Diego, USA

PROFESSIONAL WORK

January 1990-October 2002: Teacher of History, Spanish Culture and Language at University of California, San Diego; Royal Holloway College, London; and Universidad Carlos III, Madrid.
October 2002-November 2009: Administrative Coordinator of the Master on Industrial Economy, Universidad Carlos III, Madrid. (Getafe Campus)
December 2009-Nowadays: Chair of Graduate Studies. Universidad Carlos III, Madrid. (Leganés Campus)

NON PROFIT SECTOR

1998-2001: President of Asociación "Corazón y Vida", Madrid
2001-2003: President of Federation "Menudos Corazones"
2003-2015: President of Foundation "Menudos Corazones" (www.menudoscrazones.org)
2007-2010: Member of the Executive Board of the European Congenital Heart Disease Organisation (ECHDO)
2010-2103: Secretary of the Executive Board of the European Congenital Heart Disease Organisation (ECHDO)

LANGUAGES

English and French