

Mark Kurtser was born in 1957. He graduated from the Russian State Medical University in 1980.

From 2002 - Doctor of Medicine. Doctoral thesis: “The way of decrease of Perinatal mortality”.

From 2003 – Professor of Department of Obstetric and Gynecology of the Russian State Medical University.

From 1994 – Chief of the Centre of Family Planning and Reproduction (Moscow, Russia).

2003 – Head of Obstetric and gynecological Department, Public health of Moscow.

Mark Kurtser has 275 publications on actual issues of obstetrics, gynecology and perinatology, pregnancy management after IVF, pre-implantation diagnosis, issues of antenatal, intranatal, fetal surgery, obstetric hemorrhage, treatment of uterine myoma, organization of obstetric and gynecology services in Moscow.

Mark Kurtser has contributed to developing of organ-saving operations for obstetric hemorrhage, peritonitis, treatment of uterine myoma with uterine artery embolization and MR guided Focused Ultrasound Surgery.